

Lab procedures

Do we have to read over the first lab and complete any prelabs during the first week in which there is a lecture?

Note the distinction here between the first week of the course and the first week of labs. Nothing is in-person before the first lecture, but read all announcements and other information on Canvas immediately, because there are things to do online in the first week of the course.

Unique solution ID: #1006

Author: n/a

Last update: 2022-08-10 17:34