

Software

Is there anything special required to use a USB-Blaster to program DE2 boards?

The main hurdle is installing the driver. The driver is typically only installed when a board is first connected, and usually does not install automatically. Current instructions will be provided in the lab material for the current semester.

Unique solution ID: #1013

Author: n/a

Last update: 2022-08-10 17:41